

Addressing Wisconsin's Nurse Workforce Shortage Summit

Friday June 21, 2024

9:00 am – 3:30 pm

Goal of the summit: The nurses of Wisconsin will come together to address the current nurse shortage through the exchange of knowledge, experiences, ideas, and solutions to increasing the supply of nurses. The result of the summit will increase nurses' visibility, value, and their vital role in the delivery of health care in Wisconsin.

Summit format:

There will be multiple meeting sites with a virtual connection.

Nurses will sit together to discuss information, share experiences and ideas.

Each topic will conclude with a sharing from each site an identified "nugget".

Each participant will have the opportunity for personal self-reflection on each topic.

Call to action will involve each participant to share the most important activity that needs to be addressed further to advance nursing's visibility, value, and vital role.
